

Kaunihera Haumanu Clinical Council

Te Awe kia Panoni | Influencing Change

The Clinical Council is an independent group of health professionals prioritising health and disability care initiatives for the people and influencing improved health outcomes. We communicate our key priorities and recommendations to the MidCentral District Health Board. Working in conjunction with the Consumer Council enhancing our vision of Improved Health Outcomes for All.

Clinical council members

Celetia Williams

Intensive Care Paramedic/
University Lecturer

Don Baken

PhD, PGDipClinPsych
Registered Clinical Psychologist
Research Coordinator

Fiona Bradley

Pharmacist

Dr Garry Forgeson

Medical Oncologist

Jane Ayling

Primary Health Care Nurse

Dr. Nader Fattah

Principal Medical Advisor
THINK Hauora

Nicola Pereira

Paediatrician, Medical Lead
for Child Health

Raeleen Toia

Maori Mental Health Development
Lead/Pae Ora Māori Health Directorate, Director of Area Mental Health Services (DAMHS)

Dr Simon Allan

Palliative Care Physician and chair of Clinical Council

Sophie Loveridge

Registered Nurse –
Kauri Healthcare

Tim Dunn

Associate Director Allied
Health –Therapies

Wawata VISION

Kia pai ake ngā putanga hauora mō te katoa

Improved Health outcomes for all

Whāinga GOAL

Kia akina, kia
whakamana hoki i ngā
tohunga hauora

Encourage and Empower health professionals

He mea nui o koutou reo

Mō ngā māharahara me ngā whakaaro whakapā ki Concerns/Ideas:
Clinicalcouncil@midcentraldhb.govt.nz

